Top 10 Reasons to Use Bloomberg Law

1 Search Dockets, Briefs, and Motions by Keyword or Docket Key Classification
Find specific types of actions, motions, jury instructions, expert witness testimony, and more on Bloomberg Law® by using the keyword field within Dockets Search. Or use Docket Key® to locate underlying filings by targeting 20 categories, including motions, briefs, orders, and more.

2 Real-Time News From Thousands of Sources Tagged by Judge, Court, Topic, Region, and More
Set alerts to stay on top of cases, people, decisions, and more. Get comprehensive, timely, and trustworthy coverage of major cases and circuit splits, plus key legislative, regulatory, and pre-decisional developments with customized real-time news topics.

3 Practical Guidance, In Focus, Chart Builders, Treatises, and Portfolios
Practical Guidance provides task-based, how-to resources, including overviews, checklists, sample forms and agreements, timelines, drafting and negotiating guides, and more. Browse In Focus curated pages on the latest news, commentary, litigation filings, regulatory developments, and practice tools on emerging issues.

4 Practice Centers – Bankruptcy, Ethics, Intellectual Property, Labor & Employment, Securities, Tax, and More
Curated practice centers help you quickly access all of the primary law and secondary sources you will need to get up to speed in specific, complex areas of the law.

5 Litigation Analytics, Including Attorney Analytics and Judicial Profiles
See a full picture of who is representing companies in any type of federal litigation by firm, attorney, case type, litigation history, or jurisdiction. Search past data on a judge's decisions by four different classes of analytics: Motion Outcomes, Appeals Outcomes, Length of Case (in time), and Appearances and Case Types. Use Comparative Analytics to gain valuable insight into judges' actions, trends across jurisdictions, and national averages.

6 Comprehensive Set of Primary Law Sources
We provide one location for you to access primary sources, including more than 13 million state and federal opinions (published and unpublished). Our proprietary citator BCiteSM enhances your research to help you ensure your case is still good law.

7 Statutes, Regulations, and Rules Integrated With Case Analysis
Uncover case law interpreting your statute, regulation, or rule by clicking on the Smart Code® tab. A Versioning feature added for the U.S. Code and C.F.R. includes a redline comparison that highlights language that has been added to, or deleted from, one version of the code to another. View the redline comparison in side-by-side or overlay mode.

8 Bloomberg Company Profiles
Find information on more than 70,000 publicly traded companies, and more than 3.5 million private companies, to see financial information, investigate executives, and see how entities are related.

9 Business Intelligence Center – Customized Dashboards
Create an unlimited number of customized dashboards with the tools and searches you choose such as company profiles, news, dockets, court opinions, judicial profiles, and much more. Use these dashboards to save personal preferences and collaborate in practice.

10 Find Better Case Precedents With Points of Law
We apply machine learning to our database of court opinions, highlight language critical to a court's reasoning, and allow you to quickly find the best language to support legal arguments with Points of Law. Link to Related Points of Law and the Citation Map, or use Brief Analyzer for streamlined analysis.
